WELCOME TO THE STORE OF

SPRING & COMP

From the Great Trade Fountains of the World we have brought the Choicest Things, and they are here for Your Inspection.

A Veritable Museum of Liberal Arts

Such may our store be designated at the present time, excepting that everything seen here is for sale and at the most economical prices. Thirty-six departments will be opened wide to the public this week with a general bearing down of prices.

The Time is Propitious. The Opportunity Exceptional. The Field Never Ending.

Put to flight that doubtful question about the new fall dress and purchase here: you'll never miss the trifling cost. Unlike some merchants we know if we're not waiting for the "storm to roll by." Just as impossible for this store to stand still as it was for Daniel Webster to keep back the crowds at Bunker Hill.

WE HAVE THE COURAGE

To present for this season's needs the most marvelous collection of Dress Goods Novolties ever imported for a Michigan house. It will give us pleasure to show them to you, for we never tire of admiring them ourselves.

New Dress Silks.

fall shades. A well posted linen man said recently: "Your prices on linens are no more than you'd pay in Beliast." Of course he's right; it's buying from first hands and importing direct that we are able to make such prices. For instance those big Huck and Damask Towels for which we ask you 21 cents this week can't be duplicated anywhere for 30 cents. For 25 cents we will sell you a towel bemstitched, knotted fringe or plain fringe that will be good value anywhere for 35 cts. We might go on like Tennyson's brook, "forever" telling you of our attractions, but a personal visit is preferable.
